

2020 PREVENT CANCER DIALOGUE

PREVENTION | SCREENING | ACTION

2020 Virtual Prevent Cancer Dialogue Part 3: Challenges and Opportunities for Cancer Prevention and Screening in Indian Country

July 1, 2020

Together with the American Indian Cancer Foundation, the Prevent Cancer Foundation is proud to present this webcast.

All times listed in Eastern Standard Time

12:20 p.m. WEBCAST OPENS

12:30 p.m. CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR CANCER PREVENTION AND SCREENING IN INDIAN COUNTRY

Moderator: Kris Rhodes, MPH (Bad River & Fond du Lac Bands of Lake Superior Chippewa), American Indian Cancer Foundation

- The Impact of the Affordable Care Act on Health in Indian Country
Donald Warne, MD, MPH (Oglala Lakota), Family and Community Medicine, School of Medicine and Health Sciences, University of North Dakota and the Great Plains Tribal Chairmen's Health Board
- Clinical Trials, Pandemics, and Sovereignty: Tribal Governance and Community Education
Rodney C. Haring, PhD, MSW (Seneca/Beaver Clan), Center for Indigenous Cancer and Research Office of Community Outreach and Engagement, Department of Cancer Prevention and Control, Roswell Park Comprehensive Cancer Center
- So That the People May Live: The Great Plains Colorectal Cancer Initiative
Tinka Duran, MPH (Rosebud Sioux), Community Health, Great Plains Tribal Chairmen's Health Board

1:40 p.m. MODERATED Q&A WITH PANELISTS AND PARTICIPANTS

2:00 p.m.

MULTI-CANCER EARLY DETECTION: INNOVATIONS IN BLOOD-BASED SCREENING
Sponsored by Grail

2:45 p.m.

PEER-TO-PEER SHARING OF INFORMATION AND UPDATES ABOUT CANCER SCREENING PROGRAMS IN INDIAN COUNTRY

Share the current challenges and opportunities for cancer screening in your community and learn about what your colleagues are experiencing elsewhere in Indian Country, including challenges in times of COVID-19. Everyone is welcome!

Facilitators: Melissa Buffalo (Meskwaki), American Indian Cancer Foundation and Kris Rhodes, MPH (Bad River & Fond du Lac Bands of Lake Superior Chippewa), American Indian Cancer Foundation

3:45 p.m.

POSTER PRESENTATIONS ON RURAL TOPICS

- Exploring Patients' Perceptions of a Mailed FIT Pilot Intervention in a Southern Rural Colorectal Cancer Hotspot
Deeonna Farr, DrPH, MPH, College of Health and Human Performance, East Carolina University
- Building Community Capacity for Sustainable Cancer Control Interventions in Appalachian Virginia
Kathleen Porter, PhD, RD, University of Virginia

4:20 p.m.

WEBCAST CLOSES